A CORRESPONDENT at Albuquerque says that the grading of the first twenty miles of the St. Louis & San Francisco westward is well under way. A bridge will soon be built across the Rio Grande, about two miles below the town and track laying will begin. The Guaymas road, running south, is being pushed with the same energy this company has already shown, and by July will reach Socorro, eighty miles from Albuquerque.

ANY discharged soldier of the United States who has not made application for pension on account of wounds or disability received while in the service, must do so before July 1, 1880. After that time pensions will date only from the time of application. The same is true regarding applications for additional bounty yet claimed by many soldiers.

THE Denver Times says: "Mr. L. A. Watkins returned from Box Elder last evening, whither he went to look after the condition of sheep and cattle in that quarter. He reports a great deal of loss among the lambs, which are perishing for the lack of good food. Those stockmen who have good hay bottoms are saving from eighty to eighty-five per cent. of their lambs, but those who depend upon the ranges are only saving from forty to fifty per cent. The range is almost barren, and there are no indications of improvement, and the situation is altogether the most discouraging ever known. East of Hugo and throughout western Kansas the rainfall has been more plenty, and herds in that vicinity have not suffered so pitifully. In ordinary seasons, feed upon the ranges is good at this time of the year, and Colorado cattle are beginning to come into market. But at the present outlook it will be weeks before shipments from Kansas will cease. This state of affairs is truly lamentable, as it will entail great loss upon all stockmen and sheep men especially."

DIPPING SHEEP. The effect of a Dip is to free the sheep from all external parasites, as ticks, scab, etc., and skin diseases, the causes of some of which are not fully understood. A Dip of 12 lbs. of tobacco and 6 lbs. of flowers of sulphur, to 50 gallons of water, is one that has been so generally used, that it can be recommended. Some add to this a little concentrated lye, a pound or so, and the same quantity of arsenic. If arsenic is used, proper caution should be exercised, and the poisonous nature of the mixture kept in mind. The sheep are to be dipped while the mixture is warm. Those who have had experience claim that the dip of tobacco and sulphur will do all that can be accomplished by the use of arsenic. It may not be generally understood that sulphur does not dissolve in the dip; hence, in order that each sheep may get its share, the mixture while in use, should be frequently stirred up from the bottom, and the sulphur thus thoroughly diffused.—American Agriculturist for June 1.
